

Non-Discrimination Policy
Storytellers of San Diego
adopted by Board of Directors September 15, 2015

(revised 9/15/2015)

Storytellers of San Diego does not and shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, military status, or otherwise as may be prohibited by federal and state law, in any of its activities or operations. These activities include, but are not limited to, hiring and firing of staff, selection of volunteers and vendors, and provision of services. We are committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment for all members of our staff, clients, volunteers, subcontractors, vendors, and clients.

Any employee, board member, volunteer or client who believes that they or any other affiliate of Storytellers of San Diego has been discriminated against is strongly encouraged to report this concern to the President of Storytellers of San Diego

Harassment or intimidation of a client, staff person or guest because of that person's race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status, is specifically prohibited and may be grounds for termination. Harassment and intimidation includes abusive, foul or threatening language or behavior. Storytellers of San Diego is committed to maintaining a workplace that is free of any such harassment and will not tolerate discrimination against staff members, volunteers, partners, or the organizations' clients.

Issues of discriminatory treatment, harassment, or intimidation on any of these basis should immediately be reported to the President of Storytellers of San Diego.
